

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

The Unstoppable Spirit

This presentation will be inspirational, motivational and informative. The members will hear a personal account of one woman's story of overcoming and accomplishments in the victim rights movement. Information will be provided on rights afforded to victims of all types of crimes and available services. After this presentation the members will leave with a renewed sense of the resilience of the human spirit, alternative perspectives in overcoming daily trials and tribulations and personal and professional motivation.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Sharon D'Eusano, Assistant Director
Division of Victim Services and Criminal Justice
Programs, Office of the Florida Attorney
General

Ms. D'Eusano resides in Boca Raton, Florida with her husband, Raymond. In May of 1980, she was the victim of a violent crime which took her eyesight and nearly her life. In April 1981, she began speaking out on behalf of victims of crime, telling of her own experiences. Her presentations include a global perspective of violence, the emerging needs of crime victims with disabilities, and the importance of developing comprehensive collaborative efforts to strategically address the continuum of violence. Ms. D'Eusano is a nationally recognized speaker who has appeared on radio and television, including ABC's 20/20. She has published in works from Great Britain, Canada, New Zealand, Greenland, Denmark, Germany, and South Africa.

Crime Victim Reparations
350 East 500 South, Suite 200
Salt Lake City, UT 84111

Crime Victim Reparations
350 E 500 S Suite 200
Salt Lake City, UT 84111
Return Service Requested

The 16th Annual Crime Victims Conference Presented by the Utah Council on Victims of Crime

Victims' Rights: It Takes a Community

April 17-18, 2003
Larry H. Miller Entrepreneur Center
9750 South 300 West
Sandy, UT 84070

CONFERENCE
AGENDA
April 17, 2003

| SCHEDULE | | WORKSHOP SAMPLER |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7:30 a.m. | Registration | Opening Doors for Crime Victims with Disabilities, Sharon D'Eusano - This workshop offers participants insight into the experiences of those with disabilities, outreach strategies and service delivery demands. Discussion will include how the passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) affected Criminal Justice System's response to victimization; reducing re-victimization; unique family issues of victims with disabilities; and equity of access to services, activities and programs offered by agencies. |
| 8:15 a.m. | Welcome & Color Guard | |
| 8:30 a.m. | Perspective of the System: The Victim's Journey | |
| 9:30 a.m. | Break | |
| 9:45 a.m. | Workshops - Group One | |
| 11:10 a.m. | Workshops - Group Two | Civil Justice for Victims of Crime in Utah, Jeff Dion - This workshop is designed to train victim service providers on the basic principles of civil litigation for victims of crime so that they can, in turn, inform victims of their right to seek legal representation in a civil action. |
| 12:30 p.m. | Lunch & Awards Program | |
| 1:30 p.m. | Workshops - Group Three | |
| 3:00 p.m. | Keynote: Sharon D'Eusano Boca Raton, Florida | |
| 4:00 p.m. | Closing Ceremony | |
| “Without a sense of caring, there can be no sense of community.” -Anthony J. D'Angelo | | A Survivor's Tale: Protecting the Public by Improving the Interstate Compact, Pat Tuthill - Ms. Tuthill will describe her efforts in promoting public safety following the tragic murder of her daughter, Peyton. Her presentation will emphasize the need to make personal those in need of protection as well as how victim advocates, law enforcers and correction officials can assist victims in dealing with offenders who are in the Interstate Compact. |

POST-CONFERENCE
AGENDA
April 18, 2003

| | |
|------------|--------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 a.m. | Registration |
| 8:30 a.m. | Jamie Ferrell Forensic Nurse Consultant |
| 10:30 a.m. | Break |
| 11:00 a.m. | Jamie Ferrell Forensic Nurse Consultant |
| 12:30 p.m. | Adjourn |

POST-CONFERENCE PRESENTER

Jamie Ferrell
Forensic Nurse Consultant

Jamie Ferrell is a Forensic Nurse Consultant providing education and system analysis for professional and communities committed to improving their response for victims of interpersonal violence. She has 24 years of experience as a Registered Nurse with extensive practice in Emergency/Trauma care. The past 16 years have also been spent practicing as a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner. This includes coordinating the SANE program at Northwest Texas Healthcare System from 1988-1998. She provides consultation for the multi-disciplinary team members throughout the U.S. and other countries on this subject.

Registration Form

Victim's Rights:
It Takes a Community

Utah Council on Victims of Crime
16th Annual Crime Victims Conference
April 17-18, 2003

Name

Organization

Mailing Address

CityStateZIP

PhoneFAX

The registration fee is $60 for the Conference and $35 for the Post-Conference. The full-time student rate is $35 for the Conference and $20 for the Post-Conference. Please indicate the event/s you will be attending and if you are a student.

Conference

Post-Conference

Student

Space is limited so please register by April 11th. The registration fee is nonrefundable, although it is transferable. State agencies must include state FINET coding.

AgencyFund

OrganizationAPPR Unit

Obj CodeRept Category

Mail registration form with FINET numbers on check payable to:

Utah Council on Victims of Crime
350 E 500 S Suite 200
Salt Lake City, UT 84111

For information, including directions to the Larry H. Miller Campus, contact CVR at 801-238-2360 or 1-800-621-7444.